FACILITIES

The Oklahoma State Equestrian team utilizes a number of areas for their practices and upkeep of their horses.

The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center is located on a 50-acre farm located on the corner of McElroy and Western and a 44-acre pasture on Sangre Road. The main practice arena is the Atherton Family Arena, which is a 135 by 270 square foot covered arena that has wind screens on the north and west sides. The team also uses the 140 by 75 square foot outdoor arena and the Totusek Indoor Arena, which is a 100 by 200 foot climate controlled arena.

The team maintains approximately 60 head of horses used for practice and NCEA collegiate competitions. The horse herd consists of both Western and Jumping Seat horses that were acquired from donors across the country.

The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures.

The Nielson-Vargo Team Building became operational in 2021. It is a multipurpose facility that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station.

- 196 Academic All-Big 12 performers

Under the guidance of Sanchez, Oklahoma State Equestrian has made its presence known at the NCEA National Championships every year, winning the overall title in 2022 and individual titles in 2000, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2013. Sanchez also led the Cowgirls to Big 12 crowns in 2009, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025

As one of the most respected and successful equestrian coaches in the country, Sanchez has been essential in the sport's move toward varsity recognition.

A native of Colorado, Sanchez began his intercollegiate coaching career at New Mexico State in 1993 and quickly organized one of the nation's top programs in the IHSA. Under his leadership, NMSU won national titles in 1995, 1997 and 1998.

Sanchez moved to Stillwater to launch Oklahoma State's team in 1999. In his 26-year coaching career at OSU, 17 of his qualifying teams have placed in the top four at the national level. Additionally, he has coached an impressive 23 riders to individual national championships and 13 riders to reserve championships.

OSU's success under Sanchez began almost immediately as his 2000 team won the program's first NCEA national championship. The Cowgirls then won four-straight NCEA titles from 2003-06.

During his years leading the Oklahoma State program, Sanchez has earned his share of individual coaching accolades, including being named the NCEA Coach of the year in 2022 and collecting Big 12 Coach of the Year honors five times.

In 2022, Sanchez led the program to new heights, guiding the program to both Big 12 and NCEA overall national championships, earning him NCEA Coach of the year honors.

In 2013, he earned both NCEA and Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year honors after leading the Cowgirls to their third Big 12 Championship and third NCEA Western National Championship.

In 2014, Sanchez added another impressive accomplishment to his resume, becoming the first coach in Big 12 Equestrian history to lead his team to three consecutive Big 12 championships. Sanchez and the Cowgirls would repeat this feat from 2021-25, and has yet to be matched by other Big 12 programs.

During his time at Oklahoma State, Sanchez has coached numerous All-America and All-Big 12 honorees. Since 2011, Stillwater has been home to 82 NCEA All-America selections.

Forty-one different Cowgirls have earned All-America honors. Five of those - Lauren Halvorson, Harley Huff, Kary Krshka, Abigail Brayman, Jojo Roberson and, most recently, Riley Hogan- earned All-America accolades four times in their distinguished careers, while the list of OSU three-time All-Americans includes five Cowgirls: Jenna Blumer, Jorden Davis, Ebba Lange, Lindsey McMullen, Hannah Mitchell and Claire McDowall

Under Sanchez's watch, 18 Cowgirls have been named Big 12 Rider of the Year in their respective disciplines, and OSU has had 62 All-Big 12 honorees since the conference began recognizing those in 2012.

Sanchez's riders have found great success in the classroom as well. The program's emphasis on academic success is evident in the team's frequent appearances on Big 12 and NCEA honor rolls. OSU has earned 196 selections to Academic All-Big 12 teams, and five Cowgirls have been named the Big 12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Sanchez completed the coursework for his M.A. in agricultural education at New Mexico State and received his B.S. in equine science from Colorado State. He is a carded judge, breeder and competitor within the American Quarter Horse Association.

Larry and his wife, Julie, who is a registered nurse, have two children, a son, Colton, and a daughter, Caitlyn.

Laura Brainard

Associate Head Coach/Assistant Coach | Western
Seventh year at OSU

Laura Brainard is entering her seventh year as Oklahoma State Equestrian's assistant western coach and first as the associate head coach.

During her time in Stillwater, Brainard has coached 17 All-Americans and a Big 12 rider of the year, and 13 Cowgirls have earned All-Big 12 honors under her tutelage.

In her first season, one shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Cowgirls posted a 9-3 record, and Harley Huff and Emma Verplank earned first-team All-America honors in horsemanship. Huff was also named the Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year, while Verplank, Huff and Hannah Mitchell collected All-Big 12 accolades.

Last season, Brainard led a western unit that garnered five All-American selections and four All-Big 12 selections. Claire McDowall earned her third All-American selection and All-Big 12 selection, Emma Filiatreau and Quincee Clark each earned their second All-American selection, while Filiatreau also got her second All-Big 12 selection, and Abby Budd and June Roberson each earned both their first All-American and All-Big 12 honors.

In 2024-2025, under Brainard, McDowall earned second-team All-American status in horsemanship. McDowall garnered All-American status for the second consecutive year. She also coached Tristan Bagby and Filiatreau to their respective first All-Big 12 selections. On the year, Brainard's horsemanship unit compiled 38 wins and five MOPs while the reining squad tacked on 38 wins and four MOPs. OSU went 9-7 on the year and won its fourth consecutive Big 12 title. The Cowgirls went to the national semifinals in Ocala, Fla., where her western squads collected 11 total wins.

In 2022, Brainard was key component of a historic Cowgirl team that captured both a Big 12 and NCEA overall national championship for the first time in program history. Two of Brainard's western riders, Roberson and Molly Mitchell, earned second-team All-America honors.

Brainard spent the 2019-20 season at Baylor, where she assisted in coaching the Bears' reining squad to a No. 1 ranking heading into national competition. Her guidance helped Sydney Scheckel to first-team All-America and Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year honors. Brainard's Bears took home the 2019 Big 12 Championship and the horsemanship team advanced to the semifinals of the NCEA Championship.

Before her time at Baylor, Brainard coached three years at Georgia as the assistant western coach. She helped lead the Bulldogs to back-to-back SEC Championships and back-to-back NCEA National Championship runner-up finishes in 2017 and 2018.

Two of Brainard's former riders at Georgia, Graysen Stroud and Jordan Carpenter, garnered All-America honors in reining in the 2019-20 season. Stroud was also named Co-NCEA Reining Rider of the Year.

In the 2017-18 season, Brainard helped coach two SEC Riders of the Year and totaled five All-America honors.

During Brainard's three years at Georgia, her Western student-athletes collected 13 All-America selections.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Brainard was a volunteer assistant coach at her alma mater, Texas A&M, following a standout career as rider.

In her four years with the Aggies, Texas A&M collected consecutive western national titles in 2011 and 2012, as well as the overall team title in 2012. She earned All-SEC status in Horsemanship her junior season.

Brainard graduated with a B.S. in Agriculture Economics from Texas A&M in 2013 before completing her Master of Science degree in Agricultural Leadership, Education and Communications in May of 2015. She is also a third generation NRHA judge.

Alle Durkin

Assistant Coach | Jumping Seat
Third year at OSU

Alle Durkin enters her second year as one of OSU's jumping seat assistant coaches.

In her first year, Riley Hogan earned honorable mention All-American in fences. Hogan and Grace McReynolds collected All-Big 12 accolades. Anderson also coached two Big 12 Riders of the Month and an NCEA Rider of the Month. Last season, the fences team collected 44 wins, while the flat squad earned 37 wins.

Durkin comes to OSU from Texas A&M University, where she was a student-athlete under head coach Tana McKay. In her tenure in College Station, Durkin contributed to Texas A&M's 2022 NCEA reserve national championship run as a jumping seat rider.

"It's an honor to join this program," Durkin said. "They have an amazing coaching staff, riders, horses and facilities. I'm beyond excited to get started and get to work with this great team and see what we can accomplish this season and the future."

Prior to her time at Texas A&M, Durkin trained under the tutelage of several leaders in the equestrian world, such as Kevin Babington and Kenny and Linda Langmeier. While working with Babington as a student worker, she developed skills in training and caring for top-level horses, along with gaining experience in business and equine management activities.

As a rider, Durkin placed in the top 20 at the 2019 North American Youth Championship, as well as earning the 2019 reserve champion title in the Medium Junior Jumpers. With top 10 finishes in consecutive years at both the Medal and Maclay Class and the 2018 Fieldstone Grand Prix, Durkin provides top level experience to the Cowgirls.

A native of Natick, Mass., Durkin spent three years on the NCEA Academic Honor Roll, as well as spending all four years on the SEC Honor Role (2019-2023). As a senior, Durkin earned Texas A&M's Equestrian Distinguished Team Leader Award for the 2022-23 season, further highlighting her commitment to her teammates and the sport and will look to build on that commitment entering her time with the Cowgirls.

Ashley Duda

Assistant Coach | Jumping Seat
First year at OSU

Oklahoma State Equestrian announced the hiring of Ashley Duda as the program's new Assistant Jumping Seat Coach in July 2025.

"I'm very excited to add Coach Ashley Duda to my staff," said OSU head coach Larry Sanchez. "I have known her for a long time and have always admired her coaching style and how her teams ride. I know she is going to be a great fit in our program and is an excellent addition to our family."

Duda brings a wide range of experience at both the collegiate and national levels. She most recently served on the coaching staff at South Carolina and has also held coaching roles at Kansas State and St. Andrews University, gaining valuable experience across both NCEA and IHSA competition formats.

A decorated coach and accomplished rider, Duda holds an 'R' license in both the Hunters and Jumping Seat Equitation and competed in the Open division for the Virginia Tech IHSA team. In addition to her collegiate coaching career, she currently operates Hunter Hill Farm in Kansas, where she trains and develops horses and riders while also riding professionally for Kirin Farm.

During her career, Duda has produced numerous standout performances and championship results. Her teams at Kansas State also captured Regional Championships and Zone 7 Reserve Championships in both 2015 and 2016, qualifying for IHSA Nationals in consecutive years. At St. Andrews, she helped the IHSA Hunter Seat Team to top-10 national finishes in 2011 and 2012, including coaching the Cacchione Cup third-place finisher at the 2011 IHSA National Championships.

Jody Brainard

Assistant Coach | Reining
Third year at OSU

Larry Sanchez announced the hiring of Jody Brainard in September 2023.

"We are very excited to have Jody Brainard join our team," Sanchez said. "The experience he brings is going to benefit our team greatly. His insight, from serving as Chair of Officials for the NRHA, will give our team an edge in being nationally competitive year in and year out."

In his role, Brainard will serve as a consultant for OSU's reining squad and will co-coach the event alongside his niece, Laura Brainard.

Brainard brings over 40 years of experience to OSU's team, highlighted by his time spent as a professional horseman and his established credibility in training horses. He's held titles such as official, researcher, monitor and mentor to go along with his status as a professional. A leader in the industry, he's provided his services on the National Reining Horse Association judges committee, where he has participated in all the major NRHA events during his career.

"The sport of reining is exploding," Brainard said. "There is no better way to stay involved than being part of the OSU Equestrian team. It's a dynamic program and I'm excited to get started."

Brainard is a multiple time world champion in reining and joins OSU as a credited success story. Prior to OSU, Brainard spent time as a professional coach and teacher for youth and non-pro riders alike. Likewise, he's trained several riders to world titles.

"Jody's knowledge and experience is truly unmatched," Laura Brainard said. "I'm extremely grateful to have the opportunity to work alongside him. There's no question that we will be able to elevate our reining squad to the next level this year and have a ton of fun doing it."

Reining has been part of Brainard's life since he was young, as he is the son of legendary horseman and member of the NRHA Hall of Fame, Jack Brainard. He resides on his ranch in Mulhall, Okla., with his wife, Amy.

SEASON REVIEW

Tradition of Titles

With a fifth-straight Big 12 crown in hand, the Cowgirls set their sights on more hardware

Coming off four-straight Big 12 titles, Oklahoma State Cowgirl Equestrian once again proved itself among the nation's elite in 2024-25, finishing with a 9-6 record and a fifth consecutive conference crown.

The Cowgirls dropped their season opener on the road at TCU, but bounced back with three straight wins to open 3-1. Early on, Riley Hogan shined with five MOPs, while Claire McDowall added four of her own. October was a historic month, as OSU swept four Big 12 Rider of the Month honors: Hogan in both Fences and Flat, McDowall in Horsemanship, and Quincee Clark in Reining.

November began with a home test against No. 1 Auburn, where the Cowgirls fell to 3-2, but they responded with a statement win over No. 5 SMU. That meet featured a program milestone, as freshman Gable Gering posted a 91.5 in Flat — the best mark by a freshman in school history. The Cowgirls closed their fall with a split road trip to California, highlighted by Hogan setting the program record for Fences wins with 38 in a victory at UC Davis.

Spring play action OSU go 2-2, finishing the regular season 7-5 overall and 3-3 in Big 12 competition. The Cowgirls entered the Big 12 Championship as the No. 2 seed and once again delivered. After defeating Baylor in the semifinals — marking their ninth straight trip to the title round — OSU edged TCU to claim its fifth straight Big 12 crown, becoming the only program in history to achieve the feat.

The Cowgirls advanced to the NCEA National Championship in Ocala as the No. 3 seed, but their season ended in the quarterfinals with a loss to Texas A&M, snapping a streak of five straight semifinal appearances. Even so, six Cowgirls went undefeated in postseason rides: Hogan, Clark, June Roberson, Emma Filiatreau, Ava Bush, and Bella D'Onofrio.

Individually, the Cowgirls collected a host of honors. Five riders earned All-Big 12 recognition: Hogan, McDowall, Roberson, Abby Budd and Emma Filiatreau. OSU also led the nation with five Western selections among its seven NCEA All-Americans. Hogan was honored in both Fences (second team) and Flat (honorable mention), while Roberson (first team) and McDowall (second team) earned recognition in Horsemanship. Budd and Filiatreau were second-team selections in Reining, with Clark earning honorable mention.

In the classroom, OSU continued its strong tradition with 14 Cowgirls named to the NCEA All-Academic Team. With its championship pedigree and a roster loaded with talent, Oklahoma State is once again positioned to contend for national hardware.

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma State University

A land-grant institution with more than 35,000 students across a five-campus system, we've graduated more than 290,000 students to serve the state of Oklahoma, the nation and the world.

A bold aspiration

Oklahoma State University intends to become the nation's preeminent land-grant university

From their founding in the 19th century, land-grant universities have carried a distinctly American charge captured in the words of the Morrill Act of 1862:

"to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life."

Through teaching, research and Extension, the Land-Grant institutions steward a timeless responsibility: to raise successive generations of servant-leaders; to engage as vital members of their communities; to bring research and new knowledge to better prepare students for the world they will enter; and to extend critical knowledge and expertise to meet society's most pressing problems — the "grand challenges" facing civilization.

Three Pillars

Instruction
OSU provides the highest quality education in a variety of different majors using the latest teaching methods.

Research
OSU is creating the next generation of scientists, thinkers and scholars through its tradition of research excellence.

Extension
OSU's Cooperative Extension connects people across the nation and world with the latest research and practical solutions.

Core Values

Community
Foster a strong sense of community based on shared governance among student, faculty, staff and administration.

Respect
Respect and value all individuals, beliefs and opinions.

Service
Serving others is a noble and worthy endeavor and distinguishing feature of a land-grant institution.

Steward of Resources
Dedicated to the efficient and effective use of resources and sustainability.

Excellence
Seek excellence in all endeavors and commitment to continuous improvement.

Integrity
Commitment to the principles of truth and honesty.

Intellectual Freedom
Believe in ethical and scholarly questioning that respects the rights of all to freely pursue knowledge.

University President

Dr. Jim Hess

University President
First Year | Northeastern State | Ed.D. from OSU

An educator who puts students first, Dr. Jim Hess brings over four decades of transformative leadership to his role as Oklahoma State University's president. His remarkable journey from small-town Oklahoma to the presidency demonstrates the power of education to change lives.

Born in Henryetta, Oklahoma, Hess earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Northeastern State University before completing his doctorate at OSU. Hess was named president by the Board of Regents in April 2025 after serving as interim president since February 2025.

Known for his commitment to student experience and innovative approach to education, Hess has consistently led transformational change. At OSU-Tulsa, he doubled enrollment and created the popular Big Orange Bus shuttle service connecting Tulsa and Stillwater campuses. At the OSU Center for Health Sciences, he expanded the OSU Physicians Group tenfold while championing innovative online graduate programs that made OSU-CHS the only institution in Oklahoma's higher education system to achieve consecutive enrollment growth for a decade.

Despite his administrative responsibilities, Hess remained dedicated to teaching, carrying a full graduate course load each semester. His pioneering work establishing new graduate programs — including degrees in Healthcare Administration, Global Health, Medical Sciences and Forensic Sciences — reflects his belief that education should evolve to meet students' changing needs.

One of his most significant achievements came in securing OSU Medical Center as the nation's only osteopathic teaching hospital, creating unprecedented opportunities for medical students. This accomplishment, along with his many others, led to his induction into the Oklahoma Higher Education Hall of Fame in 2023.

Hess brings a unique blend of visionary leadership, financial acumen and authentic connection to students to the presidency. His ability to transform institutions while maintaining their core missions makes him exceptionally qualified to lead OSU's next chapter.

He and his wife, Angela, have two children, John and Bonnie, and four grandchildren: Johnny, Brooklyn, Billie and Bradley.

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
Fifth Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in national landscape of college sports. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date. The transformative House settlement also happened with Weiberg at the helm.

With that as the backdrop, in the modernized world of college athletics, Weiberg's OSU has been a force in competition. A sampling of Oklahoma State's accomplishments during his four years as athletic director:

- Oklahoma State won team national championships in equestrian (2022), men's cross country (2023) and men's golf (2025).
- OSU won 18 Big 12 team conference championships across its 18 varsity sports.
- Oklahoma State finished in the top 30 of the Learfield Directors' Cup standings each year. Its average national finish of 24.0 during Weiberg's tenure leads the Big 12 and represents the second-best four-year run of performance for OSU since the Learfield Directors Cup launched in 1993-94.
- Oklahoma State won the all-sports Phillips 66 Bedlam Series over in-state rival Oklahoma three times and tied the Bedlam Series once.
- The Cowboy Football team beat No. 5 Notre Dame in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, had a winning record over Oklahoma and twice appeared in the Big 12 Championship Game.
- Oklahoma State produced 178 All-Americans across all sports, the highest four-year total in school history.

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

As athletic director, Chad Weiberg hired head coaches Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball) and David Taylor (wrestling).

OSU's broad-based success reflects how the department has evolved in ways that produce a meaningful advantage. Some of the key initiatives developed within OSU Athletics under Weiberg:

- Implementing revenue share for student-athletes.
- The creation of a name, image and likeness department with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director.
- A partnership between OSU Athletics and the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.
- The creation of the POSSE STAR Fund to provide student-athletes financial rewards for achieving academic success in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling on Alston vs. NCAA.
- The creation of a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- Numerous structural and cosmetic upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium geared toward improving the fan experience.
- Innovative forms of revenue generation that included making Oklahoma State one of the first schools to sell a football field logo sponsorship and to add football field-level suites.
- A partnership with Sport and Story to create OSU's own streaming service, OSU Max.
- Converting Boone Pickens Stadium into a world-class concert venue for The Boys from Oklahoma four-day event in the spring of 2025.

Weiberg has made four head coach hires, successfully recruiting Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball) and David Taylor (wrestling) to Stillwater and elevating Annie Young (women's golf) from OSU assistant coach to head coach.

Oklahoma State hosted NCAA Championship events in men's and women's cross country (2022), wrestling (2023) and men's and women's tennis (2024) under Weiberg, providing the Cowboys and Cowgirls with added visibility on the national level.

Also on the national level, Weiberg was on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group and in September of 2024, he joined the NCAA Division I men's basketball committee for a five-year term.

In 2023-24, he served as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors.

Prior to his elevation to athletic director, Weiberg served as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21. In that role, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefited student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a key role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as Big 12 commissioner.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

Olympic Medalists

Oklahoma State and the Olympic Games

Oklahoma State has produced 129 Olympians all-time, highlighted by 34 medalists - 20 gold, six silver and eight bronze.

OSU has been represented at every Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed in since 1924.

Oklahoma State has produced at least one medalist in 19 of the last 20 Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed since 1932. The lone exception was in 1972, when the Henry Iba-coached Team USA men's basketball team chose to not accept silver medals following a controversial result against the Soviet Union in the gold medal game.

Included among Oklahoma State's Olympic gold medalists are a quartet of two-time winners - wrestlers Yojiro Uetake and John Smith, men's basketball star Bob Kurland and softball pitching ace Michele Smith.

- The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.
- Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most others count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 30 nationally the last five years and has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last seven years.

The people of Oklahoma Oil and Natural Gas Bedlam Series

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head-to-head competition.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year. In the 26 years since, OSU owns a 14-11-1 advantage over OU.

College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans

Academic All-American is a title reserved for college student-athletes who perform at an elite level in their chosen sport and in the classroom. The all-time list of 40,000+ Academic All-Americans includes major sports stars and some of the world's most accomplished individuals in medicine, business, science and the arts. Established in 1952 and selected by College Sports Communicators, Academic All-America is the longest running and premier award for athletic and academic success across championship college sports at all NCAA levels, the NAIA, two-year colleges and Canadian institutions. Teams are announced year round and amplified by CSC member colleges, universities, and conferences on a wide local, regional, national, and even international scope.

Outstanding student-athletes are nominated for Academic All-District® recognition by communications directors and must have a minimum 3.50 GPA and meet high athletic standards. (25,000+ nominations annually). A select group of student-athletes advances to the national ballot where CSC members vote on Academic All-America teams. (approximately 2,000 selections annually).

Revenue Share and NIL

College athletics changed forever in the summer of 2025 when for the first time, schools were permitted to directly pay student-athletes.

In this new landscape, Oklahoma State is in a position of strength.

It quickly announced that it will share revenue with student-athletes in its seven ticketed sports. Scholarships were also added. It was a clear statement that whatever the future of college athletics looks like, OSU will be a force competing at the very highest level.

Whatever the future of college athletics looks like, OSU will be a force competing at the very highest level.

The same spirit of innovation and care for student-athletes that helped OSU's name, image and likeness program thrive now drives OSU into the revenue share era.

Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes benefit from knowledgeable people within the athletic department dedicated to maximizing available opportunities. Being situated in Stillwater, OSU student-athletes receive additional support from a remarkably passionate and supportive base of generous donors and fans.

The revenue-share era is here, and Oklahoma State is ready.

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who leads a four-person team of trained mental health professionals dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime." Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health – we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate who joined the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

In the Heart of it All

Oklahoma State University serves nearly 25,000 students at its Stillwater campus, with 26% of the student body coming from out of state. Students from all 50 states and over 100 countries call Stillwater home.

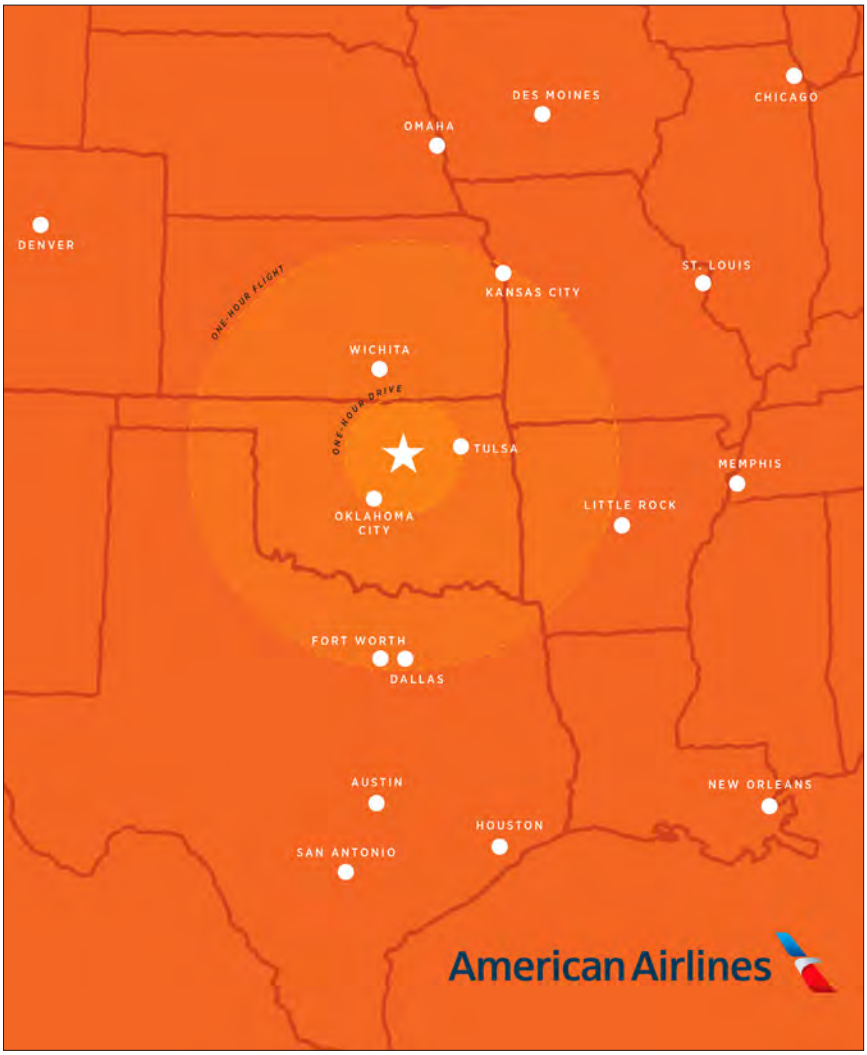
Stillwater is centrally located between Oklahoma City and Tulsa, just an hour's drive away from the two largest metro areas in the state of Oklahoma.

Stillwater Regional Airport provides daily nonstop American Airlines flights to and from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. A single one-hour connecting flight to DFW is all that separates OSU from traveling to New York, Los Angeles, London, Tokyo, Sydney and more of the world's greatest destinations.

Additional direct service to and from Stillwater may also be coming.

Stillwater Regional's 7,400-foot main runway can easily accommodate aircraft such as the Boeing 737 and Airbus A320, simplifying team travel for OSU and any opponents making the trip to Cowboy Country.

Further improvements to Stillwater Regional's facilities include a proposed expansion to the airport's terminal that would triple its current size.



Noting Stillwater

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

Incredible Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

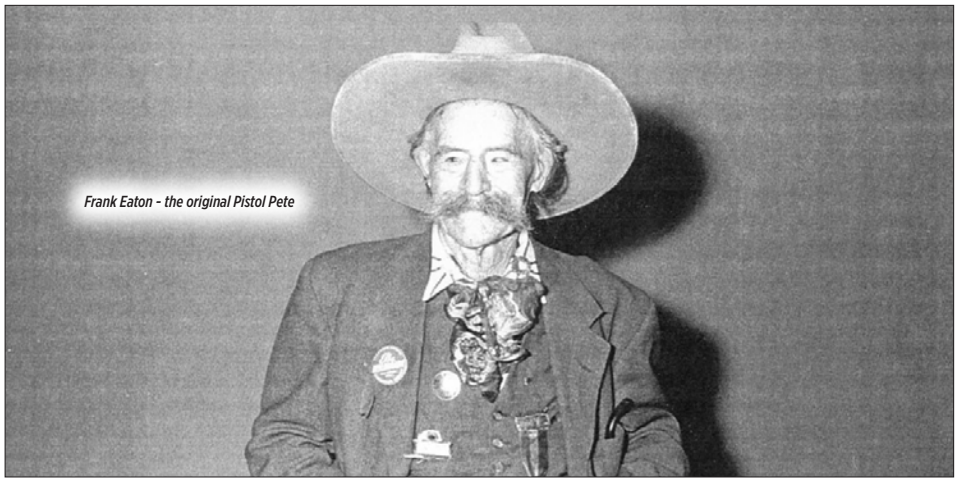
Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.



Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.

Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

The Waving Song

Victor Herbert was inadvertently responsible for a deeply entrenched facet of A&M athletic tradition, the waving song. His lyricist was speech instructor H.G. Seldy Seldombridge. In 1908, Seldombridge had gone to Columbia University to scout for a senior class play. While there, he heard In Old New York, the hit song from the operetta The Red Mill. Even New Yorkers were humming the song on city streets, and Seldombridge returned to Oklahoma humming it, too.

Shortly thereafter, he incorporated In Old New York into the closing number of a college follies show being rehearsed in Stillwater's Grand Opera House. But as he studied the stage decorated in orange and black for a campus scene, he realized that New York's praises were out of place for a southwestern college setting.

"Suddenly OAMC flashed to my mind," he explained in 1941. He asked the 30-voice choir to take a break, grabbed a piece of wrapping paper, hummed, and scribbled. In less than ten minutes he had the alternate lyrics that would enliven sports events long after opening night.

For that finale, a letterman representing each sport joined the chorus onstage. The students added their own memorable touch. They swayed and sang "OAMC! OAMC! We'll sing your praise tonight," as they waved to the audience in unison.

It almost raised the roof off the old building, noted Seldombridge, who left the campus in 1910. Exhilarated, the crowd surged to its feet and returned the rhythmic wave. It took two encores before the campus and community gathering was willing to relinquish the emotion of the moment.

"From that night on, you could frequently hear someone whistling the tune," he recalled, touched that OAMC's waving song was remembered as late as 1941.

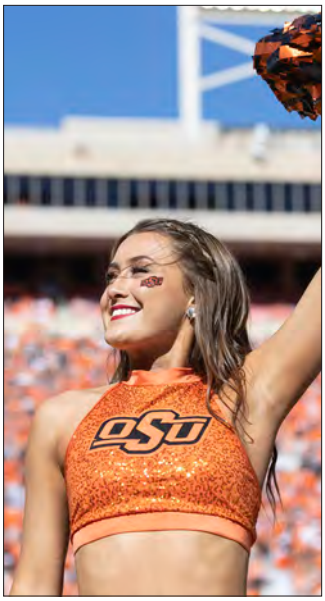
The Waving Song tradition continues to this day with OSU fans rising to their feet and waving one arm in rhythm with the song after scores in football and following victories in other sports. Contrary to popular misconception, this tradition should not be referred to as "Waving the Wheat," which is the name of the two-armed wave adopted by University of Kansas fans.

The Waving Song Lyrics

Oklahoma State! Oklahoma State!
We'll sing your praise tonight;
To let you know where e're we go,
For the Orange and Black we'll fight
We'll sing your worth o'er all the Earth
And shout: Ki Yi! Ki Ye!
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oklahoma State!

"Ride 'Em Cowboys" Lyrics

Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride'em Cowboys,
Right down the field!
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight'em Cowboys, and never yield.!
Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride on, Cowboys, to victory;
Cross (opponent)s goal;
Then we'll sing 'O-kla-homa State!'



OSU Alma Mater Hymn

Across several different sports, following victories, OSU teams gather in front of the student section to sing the alma mater. All fans, students and non-students are encouraged to remain in the stands after OSU victories and join the Cowboys for the Alma Mater hymn.

Alma Mater Hymn Lyrics

Proud and immortal
Bright Shines Your Name
Oklahoma State
We Herald Your Fame
Ever You'll Find Us
Loyal and True
To Our Alma Mater
